

Kalman Award for International Heritage Studies

Application Form

Name:

Student Number:

UVic academic program you are enrolled in:

Permanent place of residence:

Current place of residence, if different:

Location of the activity:

Short description of activity for which you are seek funding assistance:

What are your career or professional development goals, and how will this activity support that? How will the international experience enrich your learning?

What will be the total cost of participation in this activity (travel, accommodation, tuition/registration, etc.)? (The Adjudication Committee may provide less than full compensation based on estimated costs and available funds.)

Will you be applying for other funding for this activity? If so, please describe.

With this application form, provide:

- A detailed description of activity and intended learning outcomes (e.g., a course syllabus or conference program) or a work plan for self-directed study, in a separate document
- An unofficial transcript or other record of your academic achievement
- A CV or resume outlining relevant work (paid and unpaid) and academic experiences
- A letter of support from a current instructor or faculty member that indicated the value of this activity with your current studies
- A letter of support from the hosting institution or organization, as well as the names and contact information for on-site contacts and mentors (if applicable).

Note that if this involves participation in a formal academic program in an international setting, it is the responsibility of the applicant to make all arrangements for participation. If it is the intent of the applicant to request transfer credit, this must be done in advance of participation and follow normal procedures for requesting transfer credit and becoming a visiting student at another institution.

Declaration

- I hereby apply for the Kalman Award for International Heritage Studies and certify that the information given in this application is true and complete.
- I hereby confirm that I am an undergraduate or graduate student at the University of Victoria.
- I hereby confirm that the international activity in which I am applying to participate is unpaid.

Signature of Applicant

Date