POSITION SUMMARY

The Division of Continuing Studies is interested in developing long-term relationships with outstanding instructors who have high professional standards, excellent communication skills, enthusiasm and a commitment to creating learning experiences immersed in adult education principles.

We are seeking a professional who desires the opportunity to share their knowledge and experience in the field of wound management for our non-credit Wound Management for Health Professionals program. This is an online teaching position.

The instructors in the Wound Management Program for Health Professionals are clinical specialists in wound care. These senior practitioners have completed specializations such as Certified Wound Specialist, the International Interprofessional Wound Care Course and Master of Science in Nursing. Our instructors are passionate about wound management and education; they consistently bring a high level of knowledge and expertise to share in the learning environment.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Master's Degree in a related field or an equivalent combination of education and experience;
- Demonstrated industry experience with the ability to enhance teaching through real-life examples; current employment or active involvement in the field is considered an asset
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, and facilitation skills;
- Previous teaching experience (designing content for a course, training or presentation) is preferred;
- EDI knowledge and ability to communicate comfortably while remaining open to new and challenging ideas;
- An understanding of the needs of the increasingly diverse workforce.
- Instructional experience with adult or non-traditional learners and/or distance education is considered an asset.

KEY DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Develops and provides students with an approved Division of Continuing Studies syllabus based on the provided course description and learning outcomes, including detailed assignment dates, descriptions, list of readings and resources, rubrics, schedule and evaluations;

- Organizes, prepares, and regularly revises and updates all course material;
- Uses appropriate technological options for course-related software, as applicable;
- Models effective oral and written communications that engage learners, provide clarity, and provide a rich learning environment for participants;
- Ensures all content delivered corresponds with overall course learning outcomes;
- Demonstrates consistency and fairness in the preparation and grading of submitted work and ensures that feedback is timely and comprehensive.
