
INSTRUCTORFrench Language Offerings, Continuing Studies
(CUPE 4163)

The Division of Continuing Studies at the University of Victoria invites applications for French Language Instructors.

We are currently seeking instructors to join our team of French language instructors who are assigned to teach courses for “La Maison Française en ligne” – a five-week intensive summer French-immersion program. The virtual program is from June 28 to July 30, 2021. Classroom instruction will be delivered using both synchronous learning (virtual classroom in Zoom) and asynchronous learning (Brightspace course site): weekdays from 9:00am to 12:00pm (PST). This program is part of our French Language offerings, which are non-credit courses for university students, working professionals and members of the community. This posting requires native-level fluency in French and previous online language teaching experience in a classroom setting for adult learners. We are especially interested in candidates with experience teaching French in the adult education post-secondary context. The ideal candidate will have a bachelor’s degree or equivalent in the field of French language or literature, or in the field of education (or an equivalent combination of an undergraduate degree in another area plus related experience).

Preferred requirements

Applicants should have:

- Native-level fluency in French (DELF/DALF C2 or equivalent)
- a bachelor’s degree in French language, literature or in the field of education
- a minimum of three years’ language teaching experience, ideally in the field of adult continuing education

Please submit a French résumé with a letter of intent and two references to:
